DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Since photographs were taken of this house in 1977, the entire second story has been removed and a new roof applied. The house as it appeared before the alterations was a two story, four bay structure with common bond at all elevations. It was an L-shaped structure with a wing extending to the rear. Windows had six over six pane sashes beneath flat arches of brick. The double eight panel front door was hung beneath a three light transom. A double brick chimney was located inside the north end wall.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This house was an example of mid 19th century vernacular brick architecture. Unfortunately, drastic alterations have made it all but unrecognizable.
